NEW FRANKFORT

Jess Jackson made a business trip to the county seat Tuesday of last week.

Miss Winnie Moss of Idaho visited relatives in the Good Hope neighborhood.

Mrs. Jim Crumbaugh invited quite a number of her friends and neighbors to a ragtacking at her home last Thursday. A sumptuous dinner such as only Mrs. Crumbaugh knows how to prepare to which all present did justice. The ladies all reported having thoroughly enjoyed the day.

Louis Bohlken and Gust Thierfelder attended the funeral of the latter's nephew, Joseph Schwender which took place last Thursday near Forest Green.

Rev. Ziger will preach his last sermon next Sunday before going to Conference which will convene at Holton, Kan., beginning Thursday the 19th.

The Mission Study Class met at the home of Martin Lenz and family Monday evening. After the various discussions fruits were passed which all enjoyed in general.

Dick Cameron of Slater was through here Monday.

D. McCormick sold a bunch of fine fat cattle.

Rufus Davis of Marshall was through this locality Friday.

F. J. Heinzler of Marshall was in New Frankfort Tuesday.

Mrs. Babler returned the first of the week from Rochester.

Louis Reisacher is among the most industrious men we have heard of lately. As last Sunday morning he arose at the usual hour, breakfasted, and after doing his chores hitched his horse to the wagon intending to fertilize the garden. (We suspect he wants to be among the first to raise "truck" for the canning factory, knowing the early bird catches the worm.) His good wife, however, discovered his error in time, immediately called him, when he hurriedly got ready for the Sanctuary and was in his pew for Divine worship. We feel safe to say Mr. Reisacher enjoyed the huge joke as well as others if it was at his expense.

Wade Higginbotham, Dr. Parrish and Mr. McClure drove to Marshall Wednesday.

John Buxton and wife are moving to their farm north of town.

Mrs. J. M. Piper is quite sick of grip this week.

Mrs. E. D. Sappington highly entertained the fine club last Friday in honor of Mrs. Boone, who is visiting her mother. Quite an enjoyable time was spent with finch and high five. Dinner was served in three courses which was elegant, and when the hour for departure came the party could not get their consent to leave. Mrs. Sappington is certainly a splendid hostess.

John Coleman and wife are visiting at the home of his brother, J. F. Coleman and family.

Miss Nera Townsend of the country has been visiting relatives in town the past few days.

R. B. Thorp our candidate for treasurer is in Marshall and Grand Pass this week. We wish him success and think he is capable of filling the office he now seeks for.

Green-Barnes

A wedding of unusual importance in colored circles was solemnized at Nelson on Feb. 26th when Smith Green, son of Rev. C. H. Green and Miss Leah Barnes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Barnes, were married at the First Baptist church in the presence of a very large number of white and colored guests. About 120 white guests were present indicating the respect in which the parties are held by their white friends.

After the ceremony the invited guests went to the bride's home where a five-course dinner was the main feature of the wedding reception. When the wedding cake was cut, the bride got the ring, the groom the thimble, Smith Barnes the dime and Nancy Smith the darning needle.

Valuable presents were received from the following white friends:

Mr. and Mrs. H. Conway.
Dr. and Mrs. J. D. Smith.
Miss Susie Smith.
Mr. and Mrs. Will Conway.
Miss Ethel Conway.
